

I strongly support satellite radio and am a subscriber to XM Radio. I strongly feel that the satellite radio business should be allowed to broadcast traffic and weather information as a service to its subscribers. To legislate against these services would unfairly restrict their first amendment rights and serve as "protectionism" for other non-satellite broadcast companies.